THE FLAGSHIP BEERS

Desperate Times require DESPERATE MEASURES.
No matter what day of the week, or year. There is a little desperation in each of us.

William "Bootleg" McCoy (1877–December 30, 1948).
was an American sea captain who was a rum running smuggler during Prohibition in the United States.

In pursuing the trade of smuggling alcohol Capt. McCoy—a nondrinker—referred to himself as an HONEST LAWBREAKER.

William Harvey Thompson—an unprofessional prohibition enforcement agent—was widely known as KINKY THOMPSON, because of his tight curly hair. Raise your glass in protest of this blackjack wielding "martyr for the dry cause"—who was ironically shot by law enforcement while belligerent and intoxicated.
